Acme Corp Employee Policy Handbook – Version 1.0 (2022)

1. Introduction

This handbook sets forth the policies governing employment at Acme Corp as of January 1, 2022. All employees are expected to read, understand, and comply with these policies.

2. Remote Work Policy

Acme Corp supports a hybrid work model. Employees are permitted to work remotely up to TWO (2) days per week, subject to manager approval. The remaining days must be spent at an approved Acme Corp office location.

Remote work eligibility is subject to role requirements and performance standing. Employees must maintain secure VPN connectivity on all remote workdays.

3. Expense Reimbursement

Employees may claim reimbursement for pre-approved business expenses. The maximum daily meal and incidental expense (M&IE;) allowance is USD $150 per day for domestic travel and USD $200 per day for international travel.

All expense claims must be submitted within 30 days of incurrence with original receipts. Submissions exceeding the per-diem limit will be rejected automatically.

4. Code of Conduct

All Acme Corp employees must maintain the highest ethical standards. Conflicts of interest must be disclosed in writing to HR within 5 business days of arising. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

5. Leave Entitlements

Full-time employees accrue 15 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Unused leave may be carried over up to a maximum of 10 days. Sick leave is granted at 10 days per annum and is non-transferable.

6. Performance Reviews

Performance reviews are conducted semi-annually in June and December. Employees rated 'Exceeds Expectations' for two consecutive cycles are eligible for accelerated promotion consideration. Merit-based salary adjustments are applied in January.
